PASTOR CARY'S CORNER

Dear Friends in the Faith-He is Risen, He is Risen Indeed! I trust you had a wonderful Lenten and Easter Season. This incredible celebration gives us, His followers, the opportunity to ask again, what does it really mean to follow this One who is now alive? And how is Jesus 'calling' us to be His disciples; to love the Lord with our whole beings and to love the neighbor as ourselves?

There are many ways we can do that within the fellowship at Mt. Union, as well as outside our walls. As you read through this brief newsletter, consider how you can 'plug' in to Sunday School, or Worship, or perhaps an outreach effort. Or consider what the Lord has put on your heart to share His Good News! Please know, we also want to encourage and come alongside you in your life's journey, so keep us informed. May the Lord continue to fill you full with His Life and Presence.

Death could not hold him! HE IS RISEN!

PLEASE REMEMBER THE FOLLOWING

Thelma Bohn, who died on March 16th, Harry Buffington, who died on March 24th, and Jeff Thompson, who died on April 3rd! Most members of Mt. Union Lutheran Church have known Thelma and and Harry for many years and they were a great blessing in our lives and will be deeply missed. We just met Jeff a few short weeks ago, while rehearsing for the play, 'Tetelestai'. Though, we did not know Jeff long, those of us who met him were touched profoundly by his presence in our lives.

We know for Thelma, Harry, and Jeff, they are now in the everlasting arms of God the Father, who has prepared a very special place for them in Heaven. We ask that you please remember the family and friends who are grieving their loss, especially Claude (Thelma's husband) and Cheri (Jeff's wife). May the Lord fill them with the peace and promises of Jesus, who is risen from the dead!

SUNDAY SCHOOL HAS RESUMED

If you haven't joined us for Sunday School, we do hope you can. We have a class for children and two classes for the adults. The adult class that meets in the sanctuary will continue its study called Graying with Grace and in the Parish Hall the other adult class has just begun a new study from Ravi Zacharias titled Jesus Among Secular Gods. Please know you may join in at any time...and remember to invite a friend!
